Autumn Newsletter

Visit our website here!

It's been a busy few months here at the foundation. All our Winner's were paid in September, we can now look to the future with applications opening again in January 2022 and the end of the year leaving time for reflection,

Helena Kennedy Foundation.

Winner's paid

All of our 2021 bursary winners have been paid! Thank you to everyone who made this possible.

World Kindness Day

Keep an eye out for our World Kindness Day posts on our social media platforms.

Social Media

Make sure you follow us on social media to keep up to date!

Join Kirsty Young & Shahida Aslam on 11th Nov 2021 as part of #lifelonglearning week celebrations

Kirsty and Shahida will be speaking as part of a panel at the Annual Conference on English, Maths and ESOL. Click the icon to register

Previous winner, Rosie Wainwright, shares her journey of finding a career path that makes a difference and gives her advice on how you can do the same!

Rosie discusses her degree and the importance of higher education in helping her pursue a meaningful career, give Rosie's story a read here.

World Kindness Day

World Kindness Day is on Saturday 13th November 2021. As we approach this day, we want to thank our sponsors and donors whose kindness has enabled us to provide nearly 250k of support for our winners this year.

An act of kindness could be simply smiling at a stranger, listening to a friend or giving someone a compliment. Small acts of kindness can make a big difference.

Alumni Kirsty Young in Elle Magazine

We are delighted to see Kirsty Young featured in Elle Magazine UK

"I think that for a lot of women, you forget that you have many skills if all you've done for years is look after other people"
