Zephaniah, 13, Cello, Camden Music Service

Zephaniah is a very musical child who has shown great aptitude for the cello. He enjoys his music lessons and has recently developed a love for composition and picked up a second instrument, the guitar.

Zephaniah's parent has told us that music has helped him to focus, independence, and has given him more personal confidence. He regularly performs for his friends and family at home and at his local church.
